JULY 11th, 2010
FIFTEENTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

THEME: “Which one of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers’ victim?” He answered, “The one who treated him with mercy.” “Rabbi, why do Jews always answer a question with a question?” The rabbi responded, “And why shouldn’t we?” Jesus is a Jew. When the scholar of the (Jewish) law asked him, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus answered with a question, “What is written in the law?” The scholar quotes Deuteronomy 6:5 You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, being, strength and mind and Leviticus 19:19 . . . and your neighbor as yourself. The scholar knew the law. It had been handed down by Moses. But the scholar (a lawyer) looks for a loophole: “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus answers this question with the story of the Good Samaritan, then ask, “Which one, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robber’s victim?” The scholar answers, “The one who treated him with mercy.” The scholar had no other choice. If we are true believers in Jesus, neither do we. Jesus challenges us to want for our neighbor what we want ourselves. And everyone is our neighbor, no matter how unlovable they may be.

ATTENTION LECTORS AND EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS.

All lectors and/or Eucharistic ministers will be required to attend an updating session provided by the Diocese this fall. Scheduled meeting times are listed in last week's Messenger. A lay minister can attend any one of the 12 sessions, which are scheduled at various locations on various dates and times throughout the diocese. The first hour of the diocesan session will be devoted to the theology of the Mass; the second hour, to an explanation of the new norms. St. Barbara will also schedule one or more local sessions in addition to the Diocesan programs; ministers will be required to attend both the local and Diocesan sessions. Please consult the Messenger for session times, which begin in September. More information can be obtained by contacting Fr. Ryan Maher's office (859)392-1587.
