THEME: “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things.” Martha is doing what was expected of a good Jewish woman of her day – preparing food for her family and guest. Her sister Mary, also a good Jewish woman, plops herself down at the feet of Jesus and absorbs every word He says. Martha finally confronts Jesus, “Lord, make her help me!” Jesus knows that Martha is not doing anything wrong. She is doing what she believes is expected of her. And she is doing it very well. Jesus suggest she should not be so concerned about what others expect of her, but should spend time to discern what God expects of her. What God expects of us can be quite different than what the world expects of us. We discern God’s will for us in prayer – prayer that is not about what we say to God, but about what we are willing to hear from God. Fr. Hacker Fagot, S.J. [d. January 5, 2010] admits that “Too often my prayer is not God, thy will be done! But God, thy will be changed!” Do we pray? What is our prayer?

CHILDREN ARE PRECIOUS and St. Barbara’s children are no exception. As you are all well aware, we again have become a construction site. As this is the case, please be aware of your children at all times, it can be very dangerous on the grounds. Please make boundaries for them explaining that they are to stay away from the building site and equipment at all times. So please keep track of your children because they are too precious to risk getting hurt.

A lay minister can attend any one of the 12 sessions, which are scheduled at various locations on various dates and times throughout the diocese. The first hour of the diocesan session will be devoted to the theology of the Mass; the second hour, to an explanation of the new norms. St. Barbara will also schedule one or more local sessions in addition to the Diocesan programs; ministers will be required to attend both the local and Diocesan sessions. The Diocesan sessions will begin in September with times and place to accommodate everyone. These times will be published in our bulletin at the beginning of September.
