SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THEME: "Lord, teach us to pray!" Abraham bargains to save Sodom. He starts out with fifty innocent people. God agrees. Obviously lacking confidence he will find fifty, he bargains God down to ten. He could not even find ten, so Sodom is destroyed. The Old Testament covenants were bargains with God. God always kept His part. The patriarchs and Israelites were not so faithful. The disciples saw Jesus as a person who was faithful to the covenant and a man of prayer. They asked Him, "Lord, teach us to pray." He teaches them the Our Father. Then He tells the stories of the persistent woman and fathers who give their children bread and eggs, not snakes and scorpions. Are we confident when we pray to God, Our Father in heaven, that His Kingdom, not ours, will come; that His will, not ours, be done; for our daily bread not tomorrow's or next year's; and to forgive our sins as we forgive others? Are we good stewards who are persistent in prayer to learn God's will? If at first you don't succeed, skydiving may not be your thing. Try prayer instead. And keep trying.

CHILDREN ARE PRECIOUS and St. Barbara's children are no exception. As you are all well aware, we again have become a construction site. As this is the case, please be aware of your children at all times, it can be very dangerous on the grounds. Please make boundaries for them explaining that they are to stay away from the building site and equipment at all times. So please keep track of your children because they are too precious to risk getting hurt.

NEEDED. We are in need of people for adoration time slots in the morning hours. If you are able to spend an hour with our Lord please call Tracy at 525-8013 for more information.

ATTENTION LECTORS AND EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS. All lectors and/or Eucharistic ministers will be required to attend an updating session provided by the Diocese this fall. Scheduled meeting times are listed in the Messenger. A lay minister can attend any one of the 12 sessions, which are scheduled at various dioceses. The first hour of the diocesan session will be devoted to the theology of the Mass; the second hour, to an explanation of the new norms. St. Barbara will also schedule one or more local sessions in addition to the Diocesan programs; ministers will be required to attend both the local and Diocesan sessions. The Diocesan sessions will begin in September with times and place to accommodate everyone. These times will be published in our bulletin at the beginning of September. Please be aware of these notices and plan to attend the one which best suit your personal schedule. More information can be obtained by contacting Fr. Ryan Maher's office (859)392-1587.
