IN ORDINARY TIME

Theme: Faith in God Gives Hope for a Destiny

To Come "Listen here, Joe. / Don't you know / That tomorrow / You got to go / Out yonder where / The steel winds blow? / Don't ask me why. / Just go ahead and die." These lines are from Langston Hughes' poem "Without Benefit of Declaration." Apparently, life is just a journey "without benefit of declaration." Simply live it and die! The Hebrew sages searched for "declaration" and, guided by God, they came up not with all the answers but certainly with some remarkable insights. They reasoned that if God is good, He must have a plan of salvation. Life cannot be a journey without destiny!

This outlook on life requires faith in God, and though it does not offer all the answers it gives enough of them to enable us to see meaning in our lives. It is like the faith in a parent that makes a child feel safe even when the child does not know where they are going.

To a certain extent, limited as our human horizon is, we are like children. Trust in a loving God takes away absurdity and gives hope for a destiny to come. Today's Bible readings deal with the journey of life and preparedness.

CHILDREN ARE PRECIOUS and St. Barbara's children are no exception. As you are all well aware, we again have become a construction site. As this is the case, please be aware of your children at all times, it can be very dangerous on the grounds. Please make boundaries for them explaining that they are to stay away from the building site and equipment at all times. So please keep track of your children because they are too precious to risk getting hurt.
